Public Is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague and my nerves were wrecked. I could not sleep and my stomach was so weak from useless doctors' drugs that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store, Price 50c.

He says that if he made love he must have been talking North Carolina Resorts Filled With in his sleep. He says also that owing to his lonely life he has acquired the habit of talking to himself, and fre-quently awakes to find himself in the nidst of a heated argument on some current topic or quoting passionate po-etry to some fair vision in his dreams. The case is to be tried before a jury. If the jurors are married men, and will stop and quietly think over the things they said during their courtship days, they may decide, quite properly that it is a difficult matter to distinguish between the talk of a man in his sleep.
